English

What a fantastic half-term we have had in Year 3! You have all worked so hard and you deserve a wonderful, relaxing holiday.

Your English homework over the break is to keep a holiday diary. We would love you to write about the fun things you do or see during your week off!

Need some help getting started? Flip this page over to see an example of a great diary entry!

Have a brilliant week off, and I can't wait to read your diaries when you come back! 😊

5. A commuter train is carrying 383 passengers. At the next stop, 79 passengers get off the train. How many passengers are left on the train?

Curriculum Quiz

VR Workshop

1. What were the three types of volcanoes we focused on?
2. Which one was your favorite? Why was it your favorite?

Art/Black History Month

This week we have been learning about Lubaina Himid.

She uses shapes and bright colours to create full body portraits of people. Her artworks express friendship, love, and kindness.

Your task is to create figures just like we did in class of the people you care about! Think of your family and friends.

Today was a wonderful day. I went for a long walk in the park in the morning. The weather was warm and sunny, and the park was serene. In the afternoon, I played football with some friends. We had a lot of fun and even won the game! I'm feeling grateful for such a great day.
